MERRIMON IN NASH.

Thursday, May the 9th, will be a memorable day in the political history of Nash county. The large and intelligent audience that greeted our candidate for Governor at his first appointment was gratifying evidence that the ball which was set in motion at Greensboro continues to roll on, gathering new strength and power in its course and carrying terror and dismay into the ranks of our opponents.

In our Saturday's issue we alluded to the good effects of Judge Merrimon's effort and some account of the speeches of the other gentlemen who addressed the Nashville meeting. We propose today to give a brief outline of the Judge's arguments, as an attempt to report his speech in full would do him manifest injustice.

He spoke for nearly three hours, and during the delivery of his remarks, the people listened with undivided and riveted attention. The deep interest manifested by his hearers must have been highly gratifying to the speaker.

Judge Merrimon commenced his remarks by referring to the grand and glorious Convention at Greensboro, which had conferred upon him the distinguished honor, an honor which he did not feel at liberty to decline, of bearing the banner of the friends of Constitutional liberty in the present gubernatorial canvass in North Carolina. He thought it appropriate to begin the campaign in the county of Nash—a county which was the first to move in the work of organization—a county which first appointed delegates to Greensboro—a county whose citizens were distinguished for their love of liberty, of independence and of Constitutional Government.

Before entering upon his argument, he referred to the indifference of our people in political matters, and showed that it was supineness alone which has been the cause of all our defeats since the war. Every man has high, vital interests in the politics of the country—interests involving his property, his liberty, his religion, his life. In a bad government, administered by corrupt rulers, all of these interests necessarily suffer. If the white men of North Carolina, who have a majority of over 40,000, had taken an active part in political affairs, the evils which have come upon us would have been averted, and we would have no impeached Governor, no corrupted Legislature as in 1868-'9, no inefficient judiciary, such as the people are now cursed with. Every man should feel a direct, personal interest in the politics of the country. It is an important and sacred duty which he cannot neglect without being guilty of crime against the State and against society.

Judge Merrimon then traced the career of the Republican party from the date of its origin to the present time, tracing in detail the manner in which it subverted the fundamental principles of our government—showing its assaults upon the Constitution—its violation of the rights of personal liberty and private property—its prostration of the taxing power to the impoverishment and ruin of the country—its frauds, its outrages and its crimes.

The Judge said the Republican party was founded on one idea, and a single principle—opposition to negro slavery at the South. In order to bring about emancipation, their leaders before the war were willing to "let the Union slide." It was emphatically "the higher law" party at its very inception. Their Senators said the "pro-slavery Constitution was a league with hell and covenant with death," and to carry out their peculiar views, they were willing to see the principles of the Constitution subverted. In the prosecution of the war, the voice of civil liberty at the North was silent, and the fundamental law a dead letter. As soon as the war was over, the slaves were enfranchised, and many of the most intelligent white citizens disfranchised by revolutionary measures, which would never have had any binding force or effect until submitted to by the people. The war over and the slaves freed, the mission of the Republicans was ended. Emancipation being the foundation stone and the only principle upon which that party was organized, when slavery fell, what more could the Republicans ask. What objective point can that party now have? It has accomplished its work, its purpose has been consummated. It has no principle now save that of the cohesive power of public plunder.

The patriotic and honest men of the Republican party at the North acknowledge these facts and have organized at Cincinnati to turn the blood-suckers out of the offices which they now disgrace—to assert the principles of the Constitution, and to save the country from the despotism of Radical usurpation and tyranny.

The manner in which the fundamental rights of the citizen had been invaded was discussed at length. These rights—such as the right of personal liberty which every free man claims under the law, freedom from arrest, and if arrested, the right of Habeas Corpus, the right of free elections, the right to be free from search, the right of security of domiciles against invasion except by process of law—all these and other great privileges guaranteed by the fundamental law of the land have been ruthlessly trampled under foot by both the State and Federal authorities, until the Constitution had become a mockery.

Incidents were given, in detail, showing how these great wrongs had been committed in North Carolina since the war—especially during the reign of terror in 1870, in the Kirk war upon the people of Caswell and Alamance, and the arrests, trial and conviction of persons under the infamous and unconstitutional Ku Klux Act, where juries did not consist of peers from the vicinage but strangers and political enemies of the defendants, who were selected on account of their politics and because the would convict. He cited these facts to show how the right of trial by jury had been violated. While Judge Merrimon denounced crime, and the perpetrators of crime for whom he had no apologies, in the strongest terms, he said every man, no matter what crime he had committed, was entitled to a fair trial, according to the law of the land, and those who tried him in any manner except in accordance with law, themselves became criminals.

The Radical party have, by the sword, changed the character of the Government of eleven States; and these eleven carpet-bag governments would have had no validity if they had not afterwards been submitted to by the people. The Supreme Court of the United States have recently made a decision on this point, in which they hold the Governments in the South were revolutionary, and were valid only because the people submitted to them, and since they had done so, they were now estopped from disputing their validity.

Judge Merrimon gave it as his opinion as a lawyer, that there had not been a lawful jury in the Federal Court at Raleigh since the war. The violations of the right of trial by jury, and the suspension of Habeas Corpus in times of peace, the unlawful arrests of some of our best citizens in violation of the letter and spirit of the Constitution, who after being kept in close confinement day after day and week after week, were finally released without any evidence being adduced against them—all these wrongs were done for the purpose of keeping corrupt and wicked men in office.

The Internal Revenue law was reviewed at length, and its odious features laid bare. The system of spies and informers, who every day violated that fundamental right which every man has, to be free from search except by authority of law, was held up to the detestation of the people, and ventilated in a forcible and able manner. The manner in which the taxing power had been prostituted and the people plundered by dishonest Federal officials opened the eyes of all to the enormous corruptions that had crept into the Revenue Department.

Gov. Holden's Administration—the frauds of the Radical Legislature of 1868-'9—the developments contained in the Fraud Commission published by the investigating Committee—the course of Gov. Caldwell, in refusing to obey the acts of the Legislature before they were pronounced unconstitutional, in assuming judicial functions, in conspiring with certain judges to violate the law, in trampling under foot the Constitution of the State in regard to the Asylum and other State Institutions. These and various other matters were discussed by Judge Merrimon with rare force and ability, and in such a manner as to elicit the deepest interest. Facts and figures were presented to which we have not space to refer now, but which we will make use of from time to time during the canvass.

We regard the arguments of Judge Merrimon as unanswerable, and must convince every fair-minded man, no matter to what party he may belong, that the reign of Radicalism since the war has been a curse to the country—a series of encroachments upon the Constitution—of wicked and wanton usurpations—of cruelty, corruption and crime.

THE APPOINTMENT OF DELEGATES TO BALTIMORE.

By the terms of a resolution passed at the Greensboro Convention, our State Executive Committee are empowered and directed to appoint the delegates from North Carolina to the National Democratic Convention, which will be held in Baltimore on the ninth of July. This is a highly important duty, and one that merits the careful consideration of the committee. The delegates will have upon themselves the responsibility of determining the course of North Carolina in the Convention; of deciding whether her vote and influence shall be cast in favor of the endorsement of the Cincinnati nominees, or for a straight-out Democratic ticket. In coming to a conclusion upon this subject, the result of which may be fraught with so much of good or evil to the country, they will have to be guided by their own convictions of right, the sentiment of the press and the people, and the highest interests of their over-burdened State.

North Carolina is entitled to twenty delegates, two from each Congressional District, and four from the State at large. We presume the Committee will also appoint alternates. The appointment of delegates from the several Districts will, we presume, be left to a considerable extent, to the members of the Executive Committee from the respective Districts, while the Central Executive Committee together with such other members as attend the meeting in Raleigh, will select the four delegates at large. The Committee will doubtless see to it that the men who are sent to Baltimore shall be true representatives of the Democracy of North Carolina, men of liberal views, of present weight of intelligence and of discretion.

While however, the selection of able and discreet delegates is of vital importance, there is another consideration, which, with all deference, we would call to the attention of the Committee. There is a large and influential body of Democrats in North Carolina, upon whom the burden and heat of the approaching campaign will to a great extent fall, and these men ought to be represented in the delegation. Embarrassed with no damaging records, keenly alive to the issues of the hour, the young men of North Carolina, filled with the same devotion to their grand old mother now, as when, at her call, they took their lives in their hands, and gladly marched to battle in her defence, these young Democrats, we repeat, have a claim to recognition which ought not to be ignored.

In the campaign of 1870 their voices were heard in every precinct from Ashe to Brunswick. In 1872 they are more zealous still. They are in true accord with the great popular heart of the State, and no delegation can truly represent the Democrats of North Carolina, which does not contain among its members a fair proportion of this element of our party.

A knife, a razor, some buttons and some bones, dug out of the ground at Cambridgeport, Mass., form the basis of a "mysterious case."

Rev. Chas. H. Hall, the pastor of the Washington street M. E. Church, Petersburg, Va., has gone on an extended tour through the West for his health.

Franklin Wood has been re-nominated as the Radical candidate for the mayorship of Petersburg Va. A brilliant hop occurred at Jarratt's hotel, Petersburg, Va., on Friday night. Horace Greeley weighs 215 pounds.

IMPORTANT FIGURES AND FACTS—A CONSIDERATION FOR THE PEOPLE.

The following statement is important as illustrating the marked differences between Radical and Democratic rule in this State, in the matter of saving money, and it is well worth reading and being carefully considered by every taxpayer in the State.

The first Legislature—the Radical Legislature—that assembled in pursuance of the present Constitution was in session 305 days, and cost the people of the State as follows, to-wit:

They sat from July 1st, 1868, to Aug. 24th, 1868, 55 days.
They sat again from Nov. 18th, 1868, to April 12th, 1869, less 13 days recess from Dec. 22nd, 1868 to Jan. 3rd, 1869, 135 "
They sat again from Nov. 15th, 1869, to March 22nd, 1870, less 13 days recess from Dec. 21st, 1869 to Jan. 9th, 1870, both days inclusive, 115 "
They sat in all, 305 days
And cost the State for that time, $430,644.00

The last Legislature—the Conservative Democratic Legislature, sat during the session of 1870-'71, in all, 115 days
They sat during the second session in all, 75 days

They sat in all, 190 days
And cost the State the sum of $199,168.37
So that the account stands this way:
The Radical Legislature sat 305 days
The Conservative Legislature sat 190 "
So the Radical Legislature sat longer than the Conservative Legislature, 115 days
The Radical Legislature cost $430,644.00
The Conservative Legislature cost $199,168.37
Difference $231,475.63
In favor of the Conservative Legislature.

We think that sum is worth saving! We think, too, that sum illustrates with great practical force, the difference between Radical and dishonest rule on the one hand, and Conservative and honest rule on the other! Let the people consider the difference, and mark it.

The above statement is accurate and reliable. It is taken from the records at the Treasury office.

This is only one item—the cost of the Legislative Department of the Government. Other retrenchments were made by the Democratic Legislature, such as cutting down the salaries of officers and lopping off other unnecessary expenses, which we will refer to hereafter.

To-day we wish to impress this fact on the people, and we challenge our opponents to deny it.

The Radical Legislature cost the State of North Carolina the sum of two hundred and thirty one thousand, four hundred and fifty-six dollars and twenty-three cents more than the Democratic Legislature.

STATE MATTERS.

Our friends throughout the State will place us under obligations if they will furnish us with any items of news that may transpire in their respective sections, as we desire to make this department specially full.

The town of Wilson memorialized on Friday.

Friday was generally observed as memorial day throughout the State.

The thermometer in Weldon stands at 96 in the shade. So says Manning.

Judge Merrimon addresses the citizens of Chatham, at Pittsboro, to-morrow.

Judge Gresham from Louisville, Ky., is endeavoring to send a colony to the Asheville section.

The Wilson Plaindealer says it believes the fight will be between Greeley and Grant, and between the two prefers Greeley.

The depots on the line of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad are rapidly improving. A spirit of energy is manifested on every hand.

T. L. EMMY has been elected Mayor of Weldon by the Board of Commissioners. We are confident Thomas will run the town all right.

Mrs. C. W. McCLAMMY delivered an eloquent memorial address in Wilmington on Friday. Business in the city was generally suspended.

Tom Emmy has moved into the newly-fitted up Hopper House that was, at Weldon, but which is now styled the "New Emory House." We'll patronize Thomas this week.

The anniversary exercises of the Asheville Female College will commence on Wednesday. The Literary Address will be delivered on Thursday by Major Seaton Gales, of Raleigh.

The Wilmingtonians were amused last Thursday with a series of wire-walking performed by Prof. Bond. The Professor did not succeed in breaking his neck on this occasion.

The residence of Maj. M. P. Taylor, in Wilmington, was recently entered in the day time by a negro boy, and a mahogany box, containing a dozen silver plated knives and forks, stolen before the face of the cook. An attempt to catch the thief was unavailing.

Major Hughes, our candidate for Lieutenant Governor, spoke at Trenton on Tuesday last. He will speak at Kennesaw on the 21st inst., and at Snow Hill on the 23rd. On the 5th of June he will meet with Judge Merrimon in Goldsboro.

A NORTHAMPTON correspondent to the Roadside News says that the Conservatives of that county are evidencing but little interest in the present political movements. We are confident the good people of that county will not remain indifferent.

The annual commencement of Carolina Seminary, near Hookerton, in Greene county, takes place May 30th and 31st. Julius A. Bonitz, the talented editor of the Goldsboro Messenger, has consented to deliver the Literary Address before the pupils. The institution is in a flourishing condition, its present number of pupils being 65.

Judge Merrimon opens the Campaign in Nash-Senatorial Candidates Nominated an Interesting Meeting.

The Battleboro Advance of Friday gives the following account of the meeting in Nash on Thursday:

A very large number of delegates and other Democrats assembled in the Courthouse at Nashville on yesterday, the 9th inst., to make nominations for the county and for Senatorial District of Nash, Franklin and Wilson and to hear our candidate for Governor make his first speech in the counties.

Ex-Sheriff Barnes called the meeting to order and moved that B. H. Bunn take the Chair and that R. M. Furnan, David Barnes, Dossey Battle and Cicero W. Harris act as Secretaries. Carried.

Mr. Bunn on taking the Chair in a clear, forcible manner, explained the object of the meeting.

On motion of Sheriff Lewis, the delegates retired to the grand jury room to make the nominations. In the meantime the large audience was addressed by Hon. A. S. Merrimon in a truly powerful speech of two hours, in which the vast theories of the last Radical Legislature, the high handed acts of Holden and Caldwell, and the general tendency of the Radical party to ruin, and bankrupt the honor and resources of the State were exhaustively and eloquently handled. The speech gave great satisfaction.

At length Mr. Dossey Battle, the chairman of the convention of delegates, entered and reported the county nominations as agreed upon, as follows:

For House of Representatives—Col. John E. Lindsay, For Sheriff Gen. N. Lewis, For Treasurer—George W. Cooper, For Register of Deeds—W. T. Griffin, For County Commissioners—John W. Rice, James S. Battle, Kinchen Bailey, J. B. H. Boddie, W. A. Cooper, For Coroner—Col. R. B. Griffin, For Surveyor—Alexander Hilliard.

After the county nominating convention adjourned the delegates from Wilson and Franklin met our delegates and the Senatorial Convention was organized by calling T. J. A. Cooper, Esq., of Nash to the Chair and, requesting Messrs. Harris, Barnes and Furnan to act as Secretaries. The Nash delegation retired a moment and returning, announced through Cicero W. Harris, that Nash claimed only the privilege of ratifying the choice of Wilson and Franklin. This choice being ascertained, Mr. Harris in the name of Nash county placed in nomination the name of Wilson's gifted favorite, John Whitaker Dunham. This was seconded by Mr. Barnes for Wilson and Mr. Furnan for Franklin, was put by the chair and carried amidst great applause. A Wilson delegate nominated Wm. K. Davis, Esq., of Franklin, which was promptly seconded, and likewise unanimously carried.

The nominees were waived on, and accepted in brief remarks.

All hands adjourning to the Court

House, at 2 o'clock a great Mass Convention of citizens was addressed by Maj. Jno. W. Dunham, W. K. Davis, Esq., J. E. Lindsay, Sheriff G. N. Lewis, W. T. Griffin, Esq., Capt. Sam'l T. Williams, Cicero W. Harris and B. H. Bunn Esqs.

The resolutions offered and read by Cicero W. Harris, endorsing the Greensboro platform, and ratifying the nominations on the State and county tickets were unanimously adopted.

We have only space for one of them:

FOR SALE.
WARRENTON HOTEL
FOR SALE.

In consequence of old age and infirm health for the last seventeen years, and not being able to attend to the duties of a hotel, I have resolved to sell the above property. It is located in the town of Warrenton, Warren county, N. C. The hotel contains some thirty rooms, and all necessary out-houses, and can accommodate from 50 to 75 guests comfortably. It is the only public house in the village. Warrenton is celebrated for its healthfulness, good society and schools. There are four churches of different denominations in the village, and it has been for many years a favorite resort of persons seeking health in Summer and Fall. This property will be sold lower than any property of the kind ever offered to the public. I deem it useless to give a further description of the property, as any person desiring to purchase, can come and examine the premises. I am determined to sell.

The hotel will continue open for the reception of the traveling public, and I invite all health seekers, in the Summer, to call upon me. My terms will be moderate. MRS. M. M. BROWNLOW.

WATSON'S & CLARK'S

HIGH GRADE

Super-Phosphate of Lime.

Composed entirely of the Charleston Bone Phosphate, Sulphuric Acid and Ammonia.

Warranted to analyze seven per cent. of Soluble Phosphoric Acid and one per cent. of Ammonia.

We are prepared to offer this reliable and superior Super-phosphate after a test of more than five years in the cotton growing States of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, where its record is second to none.

Other manufacturers not excepting Peru, Cuba and the West Indies, have been having a better record for cotton than those of Planters and Dealers—in any quantity—at any railroad depot or at a factory, upon satisfactory terms.

Price per ton, delivered at any station on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad east of Henderson, or on the Wilmington and Weldon road north of Rocky Mount, for $50 cash.

Put up in bags—very stout—for immediate use—in good barrels—which we recommend as better, owing to the high grade of the article as analyzed. Circulars and testimonials furnished upon application. All orders and communications addressed to
